The minutes of the April 5, 2018 meeting
Motion to accept - Tony Piazza
Seconded - Amy Rapoport
approved unanimously with changes from Warren Berbit

Discussions were held on the following:

Exercise in the Village Hall Park -

Maureen to contact Joan Will about insurance certificate, waiver and hold harmless. Where to advertise, village website, facebook page and nextdoor montebello

Ponds Park -

Tony shared that algae is forming already on pond #2, the bubblers are working, he had called and was told that the chemicals will go in on May 16th. There is a fence that needs to be fixed and trees cut up

Amy asked Howard to follow up with boy scouts and trail sign for the park. Howard said he would follow up with the scout who attended the last meeting.

Tree Survey -

Amy reported that the town came around to pick up branches. She had given the list compiled by the members to the village. The village was asking for additional information, street addresses - so that they can notify homeowners and make a plan.

MPC Budget -

Unknown due to the audit

Arbor Day -

Maple tree was planted on village property

Shakespeare in the Park -

Othello - Dates TBD

Village Sign -

Is the village in need of an informational sign and where could it be placed?

Village Yard Sale -

Arrange a village yard sale at village hall in the Fall of 2018. Questions about what to charge and the need for insurance. Suggestions that the village could give out donuts and apple cider.

Spook Rock Golf Course Management -

The town has made an arrangement with a vendor. Concerns about pesticides and future use. Warren to follow up.

Article about a tick study -

Tony to share an article from the Journal News

Cemeteries -

Cleanup - Amy to meet Howard to look at the cemeteries.

Next Meeting scheduled for Thursday, June 7, 2018
